

Continuing Professional Education

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Courses for PKP™ Practitioners

Certification Programs leading to Four Diplomas, culminating in Registration as a Kinesiopractor®

The ICPKP® syllabus is taught in many countries around the world. It is the most comprehensive kinesiology education available today. PKP™ is the Gold Standard industry benchmark in professional kinesiology practice.

Continuing Professional Development through Kinesiopractic® Education

Four Diplomas and their component Certification Programs

Pre-requisite for Stress and Pain Management Certification Program

Either (i) BKP 101 - 105 or (ii) TFH 1 - 4 plus the FPK 2 Crossover Course (for TFH 4 grads)

Pre-requisite for all other Certification Programs is PKP™ Practitioner Certification.

D1. Diploma of Learning, Metaphysical & Vibrational Energies

- Stress and Pain Management Certification Program
- Learning Enhancement Certification Program
- Behavioural Genetics Certification Program
- Meridian & Holographic Energies Certification Program
- Metaphysical & Vibrational energies Certification Program
- Red Flags in Kinesiopractic® Certification Program

D2. Diploma of Energy Psychology

- Subconscious, soul and spiritual issues in practice
- Stress and Pain Management Certification Program
- Red Flags in Kinesiopractic® Certification Program

D3. Diploma of Musculoskeletal Rehabilitation & Reintegration

- 6 different Musculoskeletal Protocols Certification Pgm
- Hypertonic Muscles & Trigger Points Certification Pgm
- Ligament and Joint Management Certification Program
- Pelvic Protocols Certification Program
- Lymph Protocols Certification Program
- A&P1 - Detailed knowledge of A&P - Analyse & respond to client health information. Use specific health terminology
- Red Flags in Kinesiopractic® Certification Program

D4. Diploma of Dietary and Nutritional Science

- Managing dietary & nutritional issues in practice
- A&P2 - Chemistry, Biochemistry & Pathophysiology
- Red Flags in Kinesiopractic® Certification Program

Note: All 4 Diplomas are required for Kinesiopractor® Registration